"From the Hawk's Nest"

A Curtailed Conclusion?

I hope you enjoyed the Winter Olympics of 2010! The Olympics are very special. It's fun to watch contestants from all over the world represent their country with pride.

However, I would have to say that one of the greatest components of the Olympics is the "Closing Ceremony." After years of strenuous emotional and physical preparation, the medals are finally presented. It's touching to witness tears falling from contestants' eyes as they embrace their accomplishments.

How did NBC choose to end its 865 hours of Winter Olympics coverage? By barely acknowledging that their coverage was ending! Michael Buble finished a popular rendition of "O Canada", and then NBC cut to a commercial break, informing viewers that the "Closing Ceremony" coverage would resume in an hour, after the premier of Jerry Seinfeld's new show, "The Marriage Ref." That was it! No more focus on Olympic competitors who trained their entire lives for that priceless moment, but rather undivided attention for pointless commercials and worldly sitcoms!

If I was an Olympic Medalist, and if I was informed that MY moment was "cut short" for Jerry Seinfeld, I would be somewhat perturbed. But it got me to thinking, "Will the 'Closing Celebration' of the earth be cut short? Will it compete with anything for people's attention?" No, I think it will receive ample attention. ALL of the world's eyes and ears will focus on the powerful images and sounds, and ALL of the world's knees will bow to the ground. As Paul says, "For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet call of God..." (I Thessalonians 4: 16)

So as Christian Olympic Contestants, keep on training! Keep your focus on that "Closing Ceremony!" I assure you, nothing can curtail that conclusion!
