PRAYER

Isn't it a great feeling to know that someone is praying for you? You know that another person or group of people know your situation, and are taking it to the Father for you. Since I have begun working here in Llano, I have taken part in several prayer sessions for the sick, the church itself, and for various other aspects of life; especially for rain. Something that has been a great blessing to me, is sitting with the Elders of the congregation each week as they take turns praying for the ailments and struggles of this church. It helps me to realize that not only do we have some great men leading us; but that prayers are being answered as we continue to move on toward God's plans.

Amber and I have many things going on in our lives that we pray for and try to include you in our prayers. When we, as Christians, go through times where we forget to talk to the Father, we soon find ourselves depressed, and lost in the world without a friend. Even though God speaks to us in a different way, He is our Father, friend, and helper through life's journey.

I hope that we will all remember the importance of prayer in our lives. Just a few moments in prayer can change the world we see around us. How wonderful that we have the ability to speak to the God of the universe because we have Christ as our mediator!

In Him,
David
