“From the Hawk’s Nest”

Our “Biggest Mistake?”

With one timeout left, staggering into the New Orleans Saint’s territory, Minnesota Viking Quarterback Brett Farve held the future in his hands. Entering into the game last Sunday, Brett Farve was the oldest Quarterback in NFL history to ever play in an AFC Championship Game. Farve came out of retirement with hopes of winning the Super Bowl one more time. However, his hopes were crushed on Sunday, January 24th, as he threw an interception which led to a Saint’s winning field goal. That last pass has been labeled as “the biggest mistake” of Brett Farve’s 20 year career. In fact, it might have been the last pass that Brett Farve ever throws as a professional football icon!

As followers of Jesus, will we ever be able to label one of our sins as the “biggest mistake” of our Christian career? In God’s eyes, one sin is as bad as the other. And it is certainly a mistake when we disobey our “coach.”

But you know, there is some great news! In speaking about God’s memory, the Hebrew writer wrote in Hebrews 8:12, “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.” Let’s face it—we will make many mistakes, and as soon as God forgives us, we will make mistakes again. Brett Farve will be remembered by ESPN, Minnesota, and the Media as the “Viking who missed the Super Bowl”. Because of Jesus, Christians have a hope for a better legacy!

So if you throw an interception, or if you make a mistake, recognize your error and change to do better! But don’t let it ruin your career! Because God says, “I remember your sins no more!”
